

Three face charges after drug round-up

Three more people are facing drug charges as part of a drug round-up that began Friday in Seneca County.

According to court documents, William C. Alspach Jr., 30, of Fremont, Kesha M. Hitchcock, 20, of Tiffin, and Jamie L. Holtz, 24, of Avon, were arrested or served a summons this week on drug charges stemming from investigations on behalf of the Seneca County Drug Task Force METRICH Enforcement Unit.

All three face two counts of trafficking in heroin, court document show.

Hitchcock was served a summons Monday, and Holtz and Alspach were arrested Wednesday.

Eleven others were arrested Friday as part of a round-up targeting heroin, prescription drugs and cocaine.
