

Woman arrested on drug charge

Suspected drugs were found in a woman's vehicle Tuesday, according to Seneca County Drug Task Force — METRICH Enforcement Unit.

Kimberly A. Kistler, 45, was charged with possession of drug paraphernalia. Additional charges were pending.

The release states the task force, with additional officers from Seneca County Sheriff's Office and Fostoria Police Department, executed a search warrant on Kistler's vehicle during a traffic stop.

The search warrant yielded suspected crack cocaine, suspected heroin, money, drug paraphernalia and criminal tools, it states.

Kistler was incarcerated at Seneca County Jail.
